Empire of Storms is also the book where we begin to see Sarah J. Maas's master plan for the series fall into place, with appearances from both old friends and foes. I had always felt that the first two books of the series were disparate in both tone and spirit, making me question the fluency of the series when viewed as a whole.

Book Review: Empire of Storms – Read at Midnight empire of storms was truly emional and was the best book so far it brought me to tears when everything unfolded and I can't wait to get the next book
