It is so poor from many companies to sell expensive games but without a manual. And i will not start a discuss if you need a manual or not. Some "heroes" mean they know all about a game like the devs....very arrogant. But a manual must be a standard. And when the boxed version have no manual the game must offer a manual like PDF or something. But become nothing is bullsh.. !!!!

I do find manuals hard to start sometimes, but it isn't too bad. What is, though, is using multiple manuals in a line. Coming out of a grind or flip trick to manual never really feels right. Neither does setting up for an ollie/nollie or flip trick from a manual. I really think there needs to be some kind of threshold customization for it.
